

The Irish Daily Independent (Dublin), Saturday, March 31, 1894

ASSOCIATION OF ELOCUTIONISTS.

"The usual weekly meeting of the Association of Elocutionists was held at 18 Lower O'Connell street, on Tuesday, 27th inst. The Rev. Dr. Tindall, president, occupied the chair. The program was opened by Miss Larkin, who sang "The Last Rose of Summer," which was followed by a recital from "The Winter's Tale," by Capt. Woollett. The programme also included a recital of "Lady St. James," by Miss Harron; a song entitled "In Cupid's Court," by Miss F. McDonnell; a recital of "John Maynard," by Miss McDonnell; and the program was brought to a close with a recital of a scene from "The Rivals," by Mr. E. L. Bond. The proceedings terminated at 10 o'clock."

NOTE: Whether Horatio Alger, Jr.'s "John Maynard" (=a favorite for recitals in the US) was chosen for recital is not clear.

ASSOCIATION OF ELOCUTIONISTS.
The usual weekly meeting of the Association of Elocutionists was held at 18 Lower O'Connell street, on Tuesday, 27th inst. The Rev Dr Tindall, president, occupied the chair. The programme was opened by Miss Larkin, who sang " The Last Rose of Summer," which was followed by a recital from " The Winter's Tale," by Capt Woollett. The programme also included a recital of " Lady St James," by Miss Harron ; a song entitled " In Cupid's Court," by Miss F M'Donnell ; a recital of " John Maynard," by Miss M'Donnell ; and the programme was brought to a close with a recital of a scene from " The Rivals," by Mr E L Bond. The proceedings terminated at 10 o'clock.