		1) The "Appendage" refers to Gough's exhortation at the end of the sketch:
		"He sacrificed his life to save the lives of others; it is worth a greater effort to save a man from moral ruin - to save a child from drunkenness than from fire."
		2) Four months earlier, on July 3, 1860, The Weekly Burlington Gazette also published an abridged reprint of the 1845 version of "The Helmsman of Lake
